Comments from Previous Participants:

"This online NVC course is perfect. I highly recommend Daren's course, he perfectly balances NVC theory and practice and is flexible and attentive to the group's needs. Our group was smaller than you might find in a face to face setting, which added to the intimacy and trust of the experience. I value this experience very highly, the lessons learned are lasting and a great introduction to the practice of NVC." – Maria Sbiti, April 2020

"The Foundation NVC course with Daren De Witt is the first course I've ever done where the learning that has happened within me is a certainty. Yes I will have to practise but, even if I didn't, my awareness around language cannot now be undone. The course truly exceeded my expectations. A huge bonus was the course being split over two weekends. The opportunity this created to live the practice was invaluable. To top it off, the online setting seemed only to enhance our experience and the bond between us, something we could not have predicted." – Alia James, April 2020

NVC Online Foundation Training Outline

Nonviolent Communication (NVC) foundation trainings present all the basic concepts and tools used in NVC. They give you sufficient information and practice to start using NVC effectively in your daily life - professional or personal. NVC foundation trainings are also a pre-requisite for many of the further trainings in NVC available in the UK and overseas.

This online training will take place over four sessions of approx 4 hours each (6 hours on the final session). Each of the four sessions takes place on a separate day. Each session includes a balance of theory and practice. The practice exercises are simple to begin with and gradually become more complex and challenging as the training progresses and your understanding deepens.

Our focus for sessions three and four is on supporting you to internalise the NVC process and develop fluency through longer practice exercises, with coaching input from Daren and his assistant. Topics covered:

Session Three (on day three)

(3.5 hours training time and 30 minutes total break time = 4 hours)

Self-Empathy

- ◆ Experiencing the power of NVC to clarify and work through our own issues / concerns.

Daren will lead the group through a period of guided inner reflection using the elements of NVC. Afterwards we will explore issues arising from your experience.

Empathising With Others

- ◆ Where to focus our attention when listening to others
- ◆ Supporting others to understand and move through their issues more effectively. After some further theoretical input, each participant will have a chance to practice empathising with another person for an extended period of up to 15 minutes, in a small group of three. Coaching input and a demonstration of empathic listening will be provided by Daren and his assistant.

Session four (on day four)

(5 hours training time and 1 hour total break time = 6 hours)

NVC Conflict Communication Skills

The focus of session four will be on developing your skills to use NVC in conflict situations. Each participant will have a 30 minute coaching session with either Daren or Daren's assistant facilitator, during which you will have the opportunity to work through a conflict scenario of your choosing, from either your personal or professional life. One or two other participants will be needed to play roles in a conflict roleplay during your 30 minute coaching session. Other participants will be able to observe the 30 minute practice sessions.

Whilst we anticipate that you will learn a lot through observing, you may choose not to join the group for all of the 30 minute sessions during the day. You are welcome to take a break from as many of the 30 minute sessions as you wish, though we ask you to attend a minimum of four 30 minute sessions, including your own, if you wish to complete the training and receive a certificate of attendance.

Course Evaluation & Closure

We will finish with a 30 minute session in the large group during which we will discuss how participants can take their learning forward. We will finish the course with a check out round.

Upon completion of the training, you will receive a certificate of attendance, stating the number of training hours you attended.
